Part 4: Course Details

Please list your subjects:

Thank you for your application, it will now be considered by the Bursary Panel and you will be informed of the decision as soon as possible.

Part 5: Declaration

I certify that the information given above is correct and understand that the school has the right to reclaim any funds and equipment if I am found to have provided incorrect information or do not complete my course. I will advise the school immediately if my household circumstances change.

To continue to receive a bursary the following conditions must be met:

- Adherence to school rules and to maintain a satisfactory academic level in all subjects
- Attendance at all registrations
- Attendance to all lessons as timetabled
- Attendance to all examinations
- Adherence to the school's absence procedures
- Covered lessons require students to sign the class register at Reception within the first 10 minutes of the lesson

Please note that 5 consecutive days of absence due to sickness cannot be paid.

How will the bursary be paid?

- Every Monday the office will run a report using SIMS. This report will show if a student is eligible for their weekly Bursary Payment
- If this report shows a student is not eligible a report will be sent to the student via her register in a sealed envelope. The student should then follow the instructions on this report
- Students will have a two week window to appeal this decision to obtain payment eg if the payment is for the week commencing 2 October – a student will have to claim this bursary no later than week commencing 16 October.
- Payments are made a week in arrears
- Payment will be made direct into Student's bank account.
